THE COUNCIL MEETING

He Matters of Great Importance Called Up Last Right.

THE ANTI-CHINESE PARADE

Arrangements Are Completed to Make It the Largest Demonstration Ever feen in the City.

There was a large attendance of specta-tors to witness the meeting of the council last evening in Judge Pitagerald's office. Punctually at 8 o'clock Mayor Thornton called the meeting to order, and upon the roll being called the following aldermen were found to be present: Mesers. Burke, Gnose, Hasley, Jones, Kane and Shevlin. Aldermen Edgecombe and O'Conner took their souts a few minutes after the roll call.

call.
The first order of business was the allowance of a few small bills, when the report of the health officer was read. The communication was a long one, detailing the condition of health in the city for the past year, and making a number pertiner trecommendations regarding needed sanitary improvements. The condition of the city jail is condemned as being in a deplorable condition and unfit for human deplorable condition and unfit for human habitation. The report also calls atten-tion to the necessity of establishing a pest habitation. The report also calls attention to the necessity of establishing a pest house. The report was referred to the board of health.

The clerk then read an ordinance providing for the restraint of domestic animals running at large within the city limits. Mr. Shovlin objected to one provision of the ordinance, that granting to the chief of police half the fees collected for impounding animals. He held if a person was unfortunate enough to have his cow or horse gut in the pound, the fees he might have to pay to recover his stock should go to the city only. Mr. O'Connor caused a good deal of laughter by good-naturedly saying there were few people as much interested in the ordinance as he was or had been, but although heartily in favor of restraining stock from running at large, he did not consider it right for anyone but the proper officers to have the privilege of impounding stock. The mayor said he did not believe in rushing ordinances through the countered. The mayor said he did not believe in rushing ordinances through the council before they had been properly considered, and thought every ordinance should be referred to a committee, who could report any amendments it might consider wise. The ordinance was then passed to its second reading and referred to the judiciary committee.

ond reading and referred to the junicary committee.

The mayor said he had received a notice from the health officer of Butte, informing him that searlet, fever had broken out among a band of Indians camped near Silver Bow. He said precautions would be taken to keep the Indians out of town.

Mr. Shovlin addressed the council on the question of awnings, and wanted an ordinance drawn prohibiting the maintenance of certain structures of this character.

No further business coming b meeting, the council adjourned.

THE DEMONSTRATION.

Everything Completed for the Parade May 8.

SCARLET FEVER AMONG INDIANS. Fifteen Cases in the Cros Camp Nos

Piffeen Cases in the Cree Gamp Resentiver Bow.

Dr. E. J. Leonard, county physician of Silver Bow, was in the city preserday. He came over from Butte to inform the city officials here that the band of Canadian Cree Indians camped aix miles from Silver Bow were suffering with a malignant type of scarlet fever.

Dr. Leonard said that in coming to Anaconda three of the Indians bearded the train at Silver Bow junction. He endered them to get off, but they paid no attention to him, until he drew a revolves and impressed upon their understanding that he meant what he said.

At the present time there are 15 Cree meant what he said.

At the present time there are 15 Cree children down with the fover, and three others died last week. The utmost precaution has been taken to prevent the disease spreading. Dr. Leonard has had two special deputies appointed to watch the Indians and keep them within the immediate confines of their camp. Several members of this tribs were in Anseonda Tuesday, and three of them were bustled out of town yesterday. The Montana Union will refuse to carry them on its trains in future, and as they are not partial to walking, the citizens will not be bothered with them any more.

This band of Crees has been camped near Butte for the past year, and have given a great deal of trouble from time to time. The citizens, in their neighborhood, would be very much pleased if they would return to their native Canadian heath.

DOES CLEVELAND CARRY A GUN? An Allegation That at Receptions He Has a Revolver in His Pocket. Mr. Cleveland has by force of precedent continued the ancient custom of receiving the general public three times a week in the general public three times a week in the great east parlor, says a Washington letter, but there is little doubt that he should like, as probably any other presi-dent would like, to escape this task of promiscuous hand-shaking. The hour set for this function is 1:30 p. m., just after the president has eaten luncheon. A man the president has eaten luncheon. A man who is so intimately familiar with Mr. Cleveland as to know his private personal ways is authority for the statement that upon every one of these public reception days Mr. Cleveland has gone to his bedroom and there quietly slipped into his pocket a revolver and then descended the stairs to the east parlor. Moreover, the throng of visitors who flock to these public receptions is kept at some distance from the president, as he stands in the deorway which serves as an exit for those who pass him. This is done by a corden of the servants of the house who, counting merely the deorkeepers and messengers, of the servants of the house who, counting merely the doorkeepers and messengars, entirely outside of the clerical force in executive offices, number at least 20. The vicitors string by the precident in Indian file, and, as they pass him, receiving each one a shake of the hand, they pass also a most pleasant but determined looking man standing exactly opposite Mr. Cleveland. The people do not know it, but this man is also armed.

In the Police Court.

There was a revival in business at Judge Rockwell's court yesterday. Charles Miller and Mose Williams were charged Miller and Mose Williams were charged with disturbing the peace in a house occupied by a colored woman in the bad lands. Williams plead guilty to the charge and was fined $5 and costs. Miller said he was not guilty and was given a trial. His idea of what constitutes guiltiness and the judge's did not agree, so he was assessed to pay $5 and the usual side issues.

A Painful Accident.

A Painful Accident.

Tommy Leonard, a bell hoy at the Montana, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon that may result in the loss of the first joint of the little finger of his right hand. He was closing a carriage door and in some way managed to get his finger trapped so badly that the end only hung by a mere thread of flesh. A doctor was called in, and at first thought it would be necessary to cut the damaged member off, but the little fellow would not allow the operation to be performed. The finger was bound up and there is a chance that the nearly severed piece will grow on again.

Necomb-Miles.

Last evening, in the presence of a few intimate friends, Mr. Thomas Newcomb and Miss Katle Miles were married, Justice of the Peace B. F. Mahan officiating. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. Newcomb. Bride and groom are well-known residents of Anaconda, and they will be showered with the congratulations of many friends.
